Cincinnati Public Schools Holds Orientation/Enrollment Sessions for ECOT Students

(Cincinnati) – Cincinnati Public Schools will hold the first of six orientation/enrollment sessions for students formerly enrolled in the Electronic Classroom of Tomorrow (ECOT) and their parents interested in immediate enrollment at the CPS Cincinnati Digital Academy.

Today's session runs from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m., and the presentation will be rolling during those three hours. Parents wishing to enroll their students in CPS can find the list of required documents for enrollment at www.cps-k12.org/enroll.

Cincinnati Digital Academy offers students a rigorous and college preparatory curriculum delivered to any Internet-connected computer. Cincinnati Digital Academy provides students:

- Free, high-quality desktop computers, with Internet access (for in-district students only), and technical support
- Online access to textbooks, science labs and other supplemental materials
- French and Spanish foreign-language courses
- An array of fine arts and elective courses
- Enrichment opportunities
- Access to sports teams at some CPS high schools
